

During the month of August, I have traveled around the district to meet with seniors, families, and the workers of the region to discuss the issues important to them. I will have more events and visits in the towns in the next few weeks, but I wanted to provide you with pictures of some of the events and visits I participated in during the month.